

THE SILLY GRANDMOTHER

A little  went to visit his . When he came to the , he rang the  but no one answered. The  knocked on the . There was no answer. The  went to the back of the . No ! The  looked near her (garden). No . Where was she? Suddenly, something fell on his . He looked with his  and saw an . His  heard a noise above his , so he looked up. There was his . She was hanging upside down by her  in the  . , said the . Why are you in the ? I am picking  to make , said the . Why are you upside down, said the . I am making a special  today. What kind of  is it said the ? It is an upside down   said the silly .

Written by Rachel Fiore with graphics by Sheila Ward.

It is the policy of the DeKalb Board of Education not to discriminate on the basis of age, sex, race, color, religion, national origin, disability or handicap in its educational programs, activities or employment practices.

Pre-K to Grade 1

Ready for U.S.*

*Understanding Science

VOLUME 6 • ISSUE 5

2001-2002

Fernbank Science Center • DeKalb County School System

Grandmother, did you plant a garden this year?

Yes, I did, but I forgot to put out the signs. Will you help me put out the signs?

Flowers are on the left. Fruits are in the middle. Vegetables are on the right.

Can you help the boy? Cut out the signs and glue them to the right part in the garden.

Daffodil	Strawberry	Sunflower	Watermelon	Bell pepper
Grapes	Cucumber	Beans	Daisy	